Retirement of Chairman

Yowie Group Ltd (ASX: YOW) (“Yowie” or “the Company”) advises that the Company’s non-executive chairman, Mr Louis Carroll, has advised of his intention to retire from his position as chairman and a director on the appointment of a replacement independent non-executive chairperson.

Mr Carroll commented “Now that the business is cash flow positive and with the Company’s improved trading performance, I have decided that it is time for me to make way for a new independent Chairperson. This is consistent with my plans to reduce my corporate commitments generally. I will stay on until such time as a successor is found and a proper handover can take place.”

The Company is actively searching for a suitable candidate for the Chair position.

This announcement has been approved by the Board.
